If one might chance upon this book and wonder what its purpose be-One who never spent the year with all of us at O.B.C.;

This book is like a signpost or rather, it's a key-It fits a lock inside our minds and opens up our memory;

A year of happiness and joy and working with each other,
A time of trials and of pain,
and loving as a brother- or sister.

Before you start to read this book, considering each hall we trod;
Our prayer is that you'll see our lives and recognize the Lord our God.

90th ANNIVERSARY HYMN

God of the Ages

By Margaret Clarkson
(Tune: "Morning Has Broken")

God of the ages, history's Maker, planning our pathway, holding us fast, shaping in mercy all that concerns us:
Father, we praise you, Lord of the past.

God of this morning, gladly your children worship before you, trustingly bow:
teach us to know you always among us, quietly sov'reign—Lord of our now.

God of tomorrow, Strong Overcomer, princes of darkness own your command:
What then can harm us? We are your people, now and forever kept by your hand.

Lord of past ages, Lord of this morning,
Lord of the future, help us, we pray:
teach us to trust you, love and obey you,
crown you each moment Lord of today.

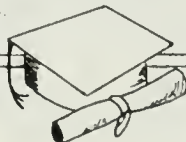

God of the nations, you have redeemed us, blessed us with privilege, freedom and youth;
Yours is the Kingdom!—Make us your heralds,
Sharing your gospel, living its truth!

Miss Margaret Clarkson was born in Melville, Saskatchewan and moved to Toronto at the age of 4. A graduate of Toronto Teachers' College, she taught in Ontario elementary schools for 38 years, retiring in 1973. She spends her retirement years writing and speaking.

Miss Clarkson has authored 14 books including So You're Single!, Susie's Babies, and Destined for Glory: The Meaning of Suffering. During the last 40 years, she has also written numerous articles for a variety of Christian publications along with poems, songs and hymns.

Two of her hymns, God of the Ages and O Father You Are Sovereign were winners in Christianity Today's 1980 hymn contest. Another one Jesus, Life of the World was one of the four winners in the Hymn Society's search for new hymns written on the theme of the 1983 World Council 6th Assembly meetings. She also wrote We Come, O Christ, To Thee, three Urbana Convention hymns and many others.

Toronto Bible College

Reflections

The most significant event this year has been the celebration of Ontario Bible College's Ninetieth Anniversary. When looking back one cannot help being filled with a sense of wonder at our God for the way he has worked in and through the college throughout the years.

In 1894, Dr. Elmore Harris founded the Toronto Bible Training School. During those early days classes were held in the basement of Walmer Road Baptist Church. Although Toronto Bible College was predominately Baptist in those days as time passed it became increasingly Interdenominational.

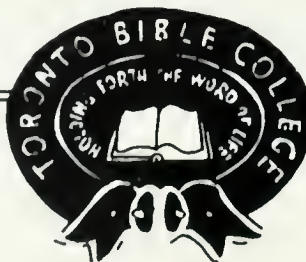

Toronto Bible College
Since 1929

Four decades after the founding of Toronto Bible College, London Bible Institute was founded by a man named J. Wilmot Mahood. He is best known for his godly life. This man had a vision to establish a Bible institute in Southwestern Ontario and he was encouraged to do so by Dr. James M. Gray (the Dean of Moody Bible Institute at that time). Mahood began to make contacts in Ontario; one of which was J.H. Dudgeon (a pastor at the Gospel Tabernacle in London). In 1935 Mahood began to teach two night classes per week at the Tabernacle. The attendance increased and, in 1936, full time classes began; the beginning of London Bible Institute.

Toronto Bible Training School
1898-1928

London Bible Institute

The discussions for London Bible Institute and Toronto Bible College to merge into one Bible school began in 1976. The merger of the two schools led to the establishment of Ontario Bible College. The nine years that have followed have been filled with excitement and growth as God's gracious hand has blessed. This blessing has also included the establishment of Ontario Theological Seminary which was founded in 1976.

This year- our ninetieth anniversary- marks the indelible stamp of God's love and approval. Surely our God is faithful!"

To all my friends at O.B.C. :

Well - It's been real!
Who can believe that the year's already over! It seems like just yesterday we were moving all our belongings into our dorms and now, here we are, moving them all out again.

When we take the year at a glance we remember both the times of fun and laughter and the times of pain and tears and we realize that in all we attempted to do God was there!

Some of you are here at O.B.C. in three and four year programs but for myself this has been only a one year experience. I don't think I'll ever forget Orientation week, the carnival, "Kevin Can Wait", the dorm suppers, studying in the library, 600 page reading assignments, exam panic and those very important moments of decision (Global Missions Conference and Chapel Services for example). One year in which to catch all the exciting aspects of the Bible College lifestyle and to form those meaningful friendships which will last a lifetime.

This year has been a very rewarding experience for me and I am glad that I, a freshman, was able to be a part of your Students' Council and have a hand in the making of the yearbook you now hold-
I hope you enjoy it.

I love you all and wish the best for you in the future.

May God Bless You Always,

Ronda Wicks

MESSAGES

and JUDITH MATERN

Hi Everybody;

It's me Judy! Well, a fast year has just raced by us. I can say that being co-editor this year was very rewarding. I'm sure all of us can say we've grown this year in one way or another. I can remember at one point during this year a friend shared with me Hebrews 12:1-13. It meant so much to me that from that time on, I've been trying to run the Race for God in a more challenging way'. We must run with perseverance the race marked out for us! Maybe a friend has shared with you something that is significant in your life.

From all of the many things Ronda and I have experienced, I can say I've grown from it. I would especially like to thank Ram Kalap our Advisor who means a great deal to me- Thank you for all of your encouragement.

To all my friends "I LOVE YOU!"

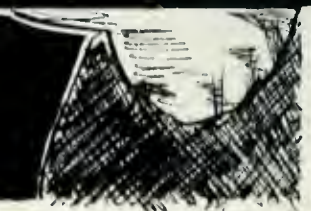

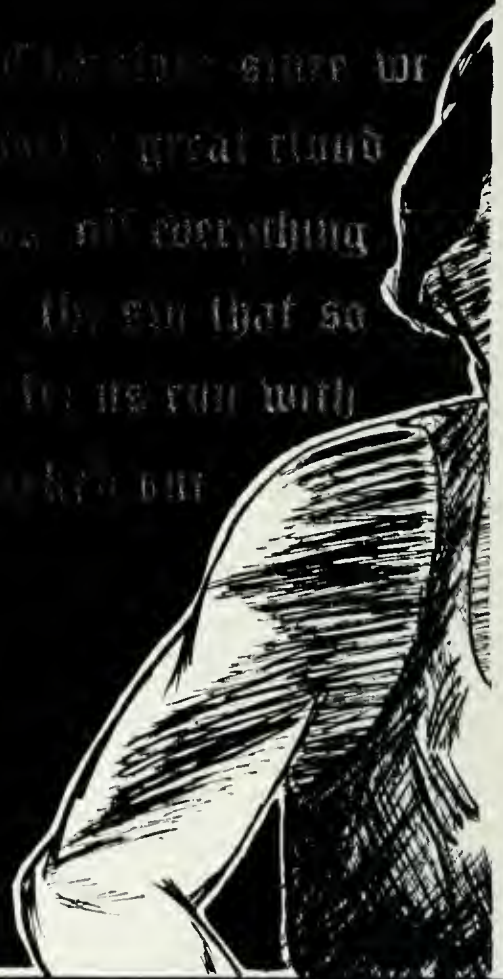

I hope you all enjoy Maxaipa 1984-85.

GOOD MORNING LORD

Good Morning, Hello Lord!
I want to thank you for loving me so!
I will seek the kingdom of God,
You are my awakening Light.

CHORUS: Lord help me find your way,
I want to love like you today.
I know if I stay in your Word Your precious grace through me will be overheard.

Worries come Lord, take them away-There's nothing more wounding than being afraid.
You've made power and love my sword-
I am a conqueror.

I will hide your Word in my heart,
I will listen right from the start.
Your Word keeps me from all sin and reminds me of the life
I now live in the Son.
I am dead to my selfish ways
I'm alive in you and give you praise!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Congratulations! The successful completion of your Bible College program is an achievement which represents a massive investment of your physical material and spiritual resources. You have already begun to reap the dividends—new and lasting friendships, a transformed character, revolutionized values, a sense of direction and purpose for your life, a familiarity with and commitment to the scriptures as the Word of God, and perhaps most of all, a knowledge of God and His blessed Son, Jesus Christ.

But you have just begun. "The Race is On". What a compelling theme for your yearbook. To begin well is good. To run well is better. To end well is best.

It was Eric Liddell, the olympic champion and Christian missionary, who in Chariots of Fire, exclaimed to his protesting sister; "God made me for a purpose, and He made me fast. And when I run, I feel His pleasure".

This is my prayer for each of you. Your Lord has an individual purpose for you and your life. He has made you for that very purpose. Seek it. Find it. And pursue it in such a way, with such a spirit of holiness and devotion that you will feel His pleasure. Then you will have run well.

May the very choicest and rarest blessings of God be yours as you press on.

CHANCELLOR'S

MESSAGE

The New Testament constantly reminds us that the children of God are engaged in an everlasting race, and a ceaseless conflict (I Cor. 9:24; Heb. 12:1). Since God is on our side, we are assured of victory at each stage just as long as we always bear in mind that "His strength is made perfect in our weakness". The key to it all is our Lord's word to the disciples "rejoice not that the spirits are subject unto you, but (rather) because your names are written in heaven (Luke 10:20) At this point the race begins.

David in the Old Testament, and Paul in the New, have outlined perfect criteria for winning the race. In Psalm 119:30-32, the psalmist wrote "I have chosen the way of truth: Thy judgments have I laid before me. I have stuck unto Thy testimonies... I will run the way of Thy commandments". And in Philippians 3:13, 14, Paul declares, "I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus".

Young People, the race is on. Some of us may be on the home stretch. Remember the psalmist said, "there is but a step twixt me and death".

Someone has said it does not matter how long we live, but how well. Whom did we seek to please- ourselves, or our Lord. Let me share with you several great statements recorded in the flyleaf of my Bible. May they grip your heart as they have mine -

*If God is your Partner, then make your plans BIG.

*It is never too late to get back into the mainstream of God's forgiveness and will.

*When a man's ways please the Lord He maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Proverbs 16:7

Young people, the race is on. Make sure to serve Him faithfully and joyously.

FIXING OUR EYES UPON JESUS

Father, You've brought us this far by your grace;
Your presence has helped us along.
And, though there were struggles and times in this race when we felt it was hard to go on,
You were here.

CHORUS: Lord Jesus; we've come to praise You!
There is nothing that You can't do.
By Your power within, we'll continue to fix our eyes on You.

Jesus, You teach us to walk in Your grace;
our hearts are set free as we go.
And now, with our eyes firmly fixed on Your face,
our lives will continue to show that You're here.

Spirit, please help us to live by Your grace;
please give us the hope to go on.
And teach us obedience to walk in Your ways, ever knowing as we carry on,
You are here.

A DREAM FOR ALL

The newspapers are filled with stories sad,
It sure looks like the world's going mad.
Crime, destruction, and hatred are all part of the scene which contributes to the mass of people feeling disillusioned.
How can words describe the frustration people feel?
Just take a look at governments and information they conceal!
Who do you trust? Who do you believe?
How do you know it's you they won't deceive?
Deception is cruel,
and when that is your game then you are the fool.
The more you ponder the hypocrisies of life,
the more you notice people's suffering and strife.
The questions keep coming and with them the confusion;
sometimes it seems life is just an illusion.
The actors play their parts so well,
Their happiness, their sadness, their heaven, their hell,
their costumes, their different roles and masks;
Often one in desperation asks:
What is my part in this very illusionary work of art?
Surely the part I play no matter how small,
Will mark my identity upon the wall.
Out of the fog, the dust, the clouded haze,
The daylight comes clear upon a vision I gaze.
To some this vision is too ideal,
To me, it's the only way to rectify the world's madness
- I feel.
Your mission in life can be better defined,
When you search through the avenues of your mind.
To discover your creative wells that spring, from inner happiness and peace that a purpose can bring.
Whatever talents you have please use rather than turning them into abuse.
Whether it be singing or writing, prose or rhyme
Use it now while you still have time.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As I look back at another year in retrospect I am amazed at the speed with which it has passed. A glance back through time reveals successes mixed with shortcomings, happiness sweetened with times of sadness, peace intermingled with times of anxiety. The future is uncertain and so I look forward with hope and anticipation to the path that is unfolding before me.

As these thoughts captivate my attention I am drawn back to a passage that was chosen at the beginning of the year as the theme for Students' Council. It speaks of our own imperfections and the task that each of us has in life; it is found in Philippians 3: 12-14.

Whatever this past year has meant to you there is one thing you are called to do- forget it! God's purpose for us is not the past but the future. The past is the Lord's and the future is yours if you're willing to take God at his word and "Go For It!"

May God give us all the fortitude and stamina so that we might be able to say at the end, "I have finished the race". We are not called to beat anyone but to run hard and to do our very best for God's glory. With that in our minds, I pray that each of us will go on to claim the prize our Lord has for us!

Tim Beerman
President
B.Th.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As God calls us on to new places, responsibilities, and ministry for Him we continue to run the race which we have only just begun.

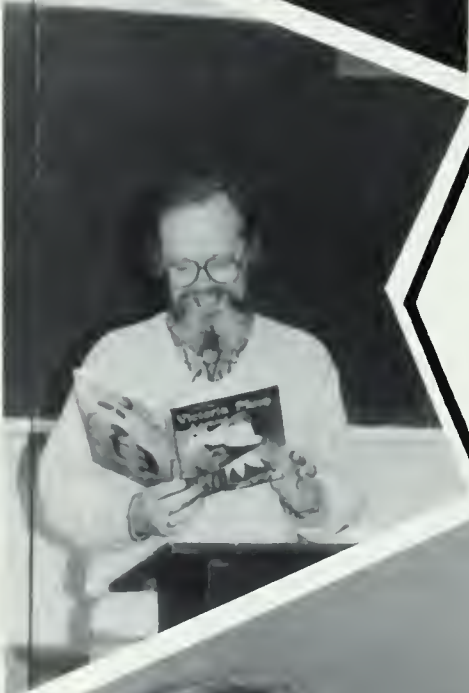

Learning what it means to run with perseverance and to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus. Learning the discipline of throwing off all that hinders and the sin which makes us so ineffective for our Lord.

Let us never fool ourselves but realize what a privilege it is to be a child of God. Also, let us realize the responsibility that lies before us in studying God's Word and having so many people invest themselves in our lives, that we may grow to be mature in Christ.

May we leave this school like the many others in our ninety year heritage; fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. God grant us strength to appropriate all that we have learned and also to invest our lives in others, that they too may share joy and blessing from our Father.

"Once you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them." John 13:17

CONSIDER YOURSELF

Consider yourself at home!
 Consider yourself part of the family!
 We've taken to you so strong-
 It's clear we're going to get along!

Consider yourself well in!
 Consider yourself part of the furniture!
 There isn't alot to spare-
 Who cares! - Whatever we got to share!

If it should chance to be that we should see some harder days!
 Empty bankbook days - no joke!
 Always a chance to meet somebody to be a friend,
 In amongst all of these folk!

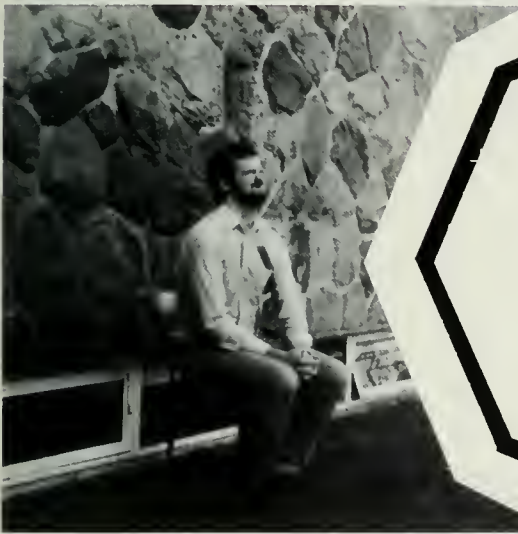

Consider yourself our mate!
 We don't want to have no fuss!
 For after some consideration we can say
 Consider yourself one of us!

The She-Wolf

A pale silver-moon hangs high in the blackened sky,
A chilling winter wind flits amongst the mounds of ever-drifting snow.
The leafless limbs of dying trees, twist and turn in some effortless attempt
To catch the sun, and if only for a moment, to somehow live.

Amidst the expanding shadows below
A she-wolf, heavy with young, waits expectantly;
Suddenly a scent, clearly distinctive from the first odours, reaches her;
Slowly, stealthily She approaches; Her natural caution battling her ravenous hunger.

A sound - silence - the flutter of a bird - perhaps a fearful rabbit.
Cunningly, with animal lust She approaches; breathes, pants, salivates, yet ever ready for the kill.
The crunch of snow; too heavy for her intended prey, Anger - terror - fear; a growl emerges from the deep of her throat.

Time to hide; She stays to fill the unquenchable hunger;
The footfalls sound a deafening siren in the She-wolf
Yet still she remains.
Closer - she crouches, and ever so silently her black form creeps closer to the forbidden prey...

A cry from the depths and beginning of time sounds from within her,
Ringing throughout the wilderness.
A scream, a desperate leap for freedom,
A chance for survival-
A means to preserve the tiny hold each one of us has on life.

PLAN NOW

to share your skills in building a strong church in Africa.

- Church growth in some places in Africa is phenomenal.
- Training of Bible communicators within the expanding church has not kept pace with church growth.
- Many people still wait for the Gospel to reach them.

AFRICA INLAND MISSION (CANADA)

can help you plan your ministry.

MISSIONARY..

A missionary is an ordinary Christian who takes the Great Commission seriously.

Without mincing theology, he accepts responsibility for reaching the unreached.

A missionary obeys clear directives spelled out for him in the Word of God.

Daring to follow God's leading despite his own inadequacies, or the opposition of circumstances, a missionary takes the gospel to peoples of other cultures who otherwise will spend their eternity in hell.

If you don't give up even though you feel like it... if you're a team player who is willing to lose yourself in winning others... if you hunger to know God in uniquely intimate ways... you are missionary material.
